

ALEXANDRIA.

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 26.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the times."

A few weeks ago the dry-goods trade of New York estimated the cotton crop of the present season at only eleven hundred thousand bales. Now, the Independent, an organ of that trade, estimates the crop at three millions of bales. Though the season has been more propitious than was expected, this would seem to be a wild exaggeration. But the same organ states, that cotton agents have contracted for the delivery of crops, at Southern ports, at twenty-five cents, currency, and that they have contracted with planters in Georgia and Alabama at eighteen cents. It states further, that planters are desirous of selling their growing crops, deliverable in November, at prices much less than present rates.

President Johnson has signed the bill to aid in the construction of telegraph lines, and to secure to the Government the use of them when wanted for postal, military and other services. Also, the bill reviving the grade of General in the army of the U. S., and has nominated Gen. Grant for that office. He has likewise nominated Vice Admiral Farragut as Admiral in the navy, under a recent law.

Of the losses by the recent terrible fire in Portland, the Press of that city says that the first estimates were too low. It now states that 1,800 houses were destroyed, and 3,000 families, embracing at least 12,000 persons, rendered homeless, whilst the value of the property destroyed may reach $15,000,000. The amount of insurance thus far ascertained is $5,000,000.

New and dangerous counterfeiters of the late issue of the fifty-cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected at the Treasury Department. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance, though poor, is calculated to deceive, unless closely inspected.

A riot between whites and negroes, occasioned by a railroad conductor attempting to cut the buttons off a negro's coat, occurred at Columbus, Ky., on Saturday. Three or four negroes were killed. Several whites are missing, but it is not known whether they are killed.

Six of the refractory members of the Tennessee Legislature have been expelled by their associates, who do not themselves constitute a quorum for business; and the Speaker of the House has been relieved from duty, at his own request, for the rest of the term.

Six cases of cholera, three of which proved fatal, were reported in Philadelphia up to two o'clock yesterday. Out of twelve cases of cholera reported in New York yesterday there were three deaths. In Brooklyn eight new cases were reported.

A large crowd of negroes paraded the streets of Richmond on Monday evening, with beating of drums, &c. The demonstration was made, it is said, against the city authorities.

Congress, in the appropriation bills, is raising salaries. They will increase their own from three to five thousand dollars a year, exclusive of mileage.

A great "wigwag" for the accommodation of the National Union Convention is to be erected in Philadelphia.

The collections for the benefit of Portland have already reached $500,000.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The Hibernia brings dates to the 16th. The latest reports speak favorably of the progress of the Great Eastern in paying out the Atlantic Cable. The cotton market at Liverpool was firmer. Nothing further has transpired concerning the negotiations between Napoleon and the continental Powers. Several French papers have received Government warnings for publishing false news. A sanguinary conflict took place on the 14th instant, between the Prussians and Federals near Archaffenturg. The former were entirely successful, and the town was in flames and the Federals retreating. The Prussians were marching on Frankfurt, which town had been evacuated by the Federals, and the Diet had been removed to Augustenburg, where the foreign representatives were expected to assemble. The headquarters of the Prussian army under the King had been advanced to Brunn.

MARYLAND POLITICS.—The Union State Convention, of the Anti Radical or Johnson wing, met in Baltimore yesterday. John M. Frazier, the Speaker of the last House of Delegates, presided and the whole proceedings appear to have been marked by the utmost harmony and good feeling. A series of resolutions, conservative and national in tone, and discriminating as to Federal and State powers, while yet recognizing the changed condition of things growing out of the war, and endorsing the policy of the President, and the principles announced in his late veto messages, and also making liberal expression in regard to the State registration law, were enthusiastically adopted by the convention. The only State nomination to be made was for Comptroller of the Treasury. Col. William J. Leonard, of Worcester county, was nominated by acclamation. Delegates were appointed to the Philadelphia National Union Convention for the State at large, as follows: Thomas Swann, Montgomery; Blair, J. W. Crisfield and Reverdy Johnson; and also for the congressional districts.

"2. All reorganizations of Confederate companies, batteries, regiments, brigades, or divisions, within the limits of this Division, for whatsoever purposes, are hereby dissolved, and the maintenance of such organizations, either in a public or private manner, are prohibited."

"3. Department Commanders will be held strictly responsible for the faithful execution of this order."

"By command of Major General P. H. Sheridan."

GEORGE LEE, Assistant Adjutant General.

The Red river, Louisiana, papers record two more murders by negro soldiers, or negroes dressed as U. S. troops. These parties appear almost every day on the public highways and rob and assassinate. We do not see that the cases have been reported by the Freedmen's Bureau.

It is announced that for some time past the health of the Pope has appeared to be failing, and his condition causes no little anxiety to his Cardinals, with whom he speaks frequently of approaching death. Pius IX., the present Pope, was born in May, 1792, and is 74 years old.

LETTER FROM LOUDOUN COUNTY.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

LEESBURG, VA., July 24th, 1866.—After a long silence, because of the heat, I resume my pen to inform your readers that, on Friday night last, Joshua Pusey, an aged citizen of this county, lost from his field, near Waterford, 14 head of fat cattle. They were driven through Leesburg, and reached Goose Creek about 11 o'clock, after the ferryman and his assistant had gone to sleep. Although the creek was pretty deep, the negroes did not ferry them over, but drove them through the water, and were not heard till they were ascending the hill on the East side of the creek. It is said two white men were driving them, and they employed a negro man to help them. Later in the night they left the negro in charge, and one returned across to the West side of the creek. The negro was directed to drive them at a distance from the road, and the reason given was that he was alone, and could not control them if they met or passed other droves. On Sunday one of the men, who had stolen the cattle, (said to be a notorious guerrilla on the Union side, and not Captain Meams, who in time of peace has ceased warfare,) crossed Goose Creek at another place, and was met on Monday, near Georgetown, driving the cattle. Mr. Pusey did not miss his cattle till Sunday evening, and immediately started in pursuit, as did his son-in-law Noble S. Braden.

We have had beautiful rains, and it looks as if the goodness of God was "filling our hearts with food and gladness."

The hay crop is light; the oats very heavy; new selling here at 50 cents a bushel. The corn crop, without untimely damage, will be tremendous, with an immense quantity planted.

Flour, good, is selling at $14½; corn meal at a dollar; butter at 25 cents, when any can be had, bacon by the piece at 22 cents.

Chickens are mythes, or, if they do appear in mortal form, are said to be mere ghosts of chickens, their bodies parts being very meagre, and unsubstantial.

The graves of the Confederate dead were rounded up and ornamented on Saturday; and, while attention to all the graves of our departed ones is commendable, I think public demonstrations are to be avoided in the present combustible state of public opinions at the North.

Wear and worn out with four years service, at Appomattox Court House "I was admonished that I had nothing more to say," and I think a quiet, unobtrusive, unremarkable behaviour of the vanquished would be more commendable than some demonstrations I have heard of, especially as we all outwardly profess to be friends of President Johnson; and why should we not? Vanquished, exhausted and at the mercy of the conquerors, who can forget the thrill of joy with which we hailed the Proclamation of Amnesty? I have not forgotten (I do not mean to forget) it, and while some things in his policy (occasional acts) have seemed mysterious and inexplicable, I heartily believe that he has done all that a man in his position, and with his surroundings and his hindrances could do, and he deserves at our hands, a full, free, generous and self-sacrificing support; yet, even if we thereby have to postpone public demonstrations of respect for the memory of those who have died in defense of the "Lost Cause," I am afraid these utterances will excite animadversion from some quarters. I cannot help it; I verily believe I am right, and dare maintain my position. I for one Confederate soldier stand surrendered to the United States Government. I for one, submitted the whole matter to the decision of the Almighty, and in his wisdom he has decided against me, and I fully recognize his authority, and hope in time to see his goodness shine through the thick darkness. I can truly say,

"Then oh! my soul rest sure in God,
What though the tempest shrieks aloud,
Bear, patient heart, his chastening rod,
And look "for light beyond the cloud."

Think of the lovely flower,
We have in heaven to bloom.

INSURANCE. THE Mutual Life Ins. Co., OF NEW YORK. ASSETS, over $16,000,000.

To meet the choice of such present or future members as may prefer to have the amount insured paid in instalments to their widows or heirs, rather than in one sum, this Company is prepared to insert in its policies a clause agreeing that in lieu of the payment of the policy and profits in one sum, an equitable amount, to be determined by the Company, may be paid annually or semi-annually for any specified number of years, (say from five to twenty-five years.)

EXAMPLE.—Suppose a policy of $10,000 with additions amounting to $5,000 more, should become payable by reason of the death of the person insured, the Company, in lieu of the payment of $15,000 in one sum, would be able to give (assuming interest as realized in the past) an annuity for ten years of over $2,000 per annum, or for twenty years an annuity of over $1,300 per annum.

This form of annuity will remove the anxiety which may exist in the minds of some policy holders lest the future provision they have made for their families should be ineffectual or transitory in its duration, either through unwise investments, unwise expenditure, or other uncertainties incident to contingencies. Hence the provision may be considered, humanly speaking, beyond any adverse contingency.

All such deferred payments or annuities will share equitably in the profits or dividends of the Company.

This Company also issues Survivorship Annuities, which provide for survivors during the whole period of life, and Deferred Annuities, by which individuals may provide for themselves in advanced age.

F. S. WINSTON President.

The undersigned begs to call the attention of those who desire to make provision for their families, to the advantages offered by the above MAGNIFICENT INSTITUTION. There is no way in which a small sum of money can be so profitably and securely invested, for such a purpose, as in a policy on your life, with the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. The following descriptions of Policies are issued by this Company, the premiums on which may be paid yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly, at the option of the party assured:

1st. LIFE POLICIES, for the whole term of life, payable, together with the dividend additions, after the death of the party assured, to the person entitled to receive the same.

2d. ENDOWMENT ASSURANCE POLICIES.—These are issued to persons desirous of making provision for advanced life, or any other purpose, and are payable, together with accrued dividends on same, at the assured party, on attaining a certain age, say 40, 45, 50, 55, 60 or 65, or in case of his death before arriving at that age, to his heirs or assigns.

3d. ENDOWMENT POLICIES FOR CHILDREN payable when a child attains the age of 18, 21 or 25, or upward, either with or without the return of the total premium paid, in case the party assured dies prior to the maturity of the policy.

4th. SURVIVORSHIP ANNUITY POLICIES, by which an insurer may secure to a surviving nominee, whether wife, parent, child, or friend, the enjoyment of a certain definite and permanent income for life, free alike from the dangers and expenses of investing money, and from the dependence upon persons who may perhaps prove injudicious or adversely interested.

All policies issued by this Company participate in the surplus, the whole of which will be ANNUALLY DIVIDED, in the most equitable manner, among the Policy-holders, and distributed, at my Office, No. 73, Prince street, Alexandria, Va. G. I. THOMAS, Agent.
